Rams Study Centre - 'Playing for Success'

Congratulations to the following pupils for excellent work at the Rams Study Centre 'Playing for Success' course: Billy Wainwright, Amy Martin, James Pollard, Lauren Hampton, Charlotte Findlay, Jacob Hallam, Megan Grimes, Daisy Ford, Sam Jankinson, Joseph Hawksworth, Austin Williams & Stuart Riddell. Special thanks go to Austin's dad, Daisy's mum and Lauren's family for help on the mini-bus.

School Uniform

We have recently changed our uniform supplier to YourSchoolUniform.com. We do still have some stock in school. If you wish to order uniform please go to www.YourSchoolUniform.com in the first instance and you will be able to see what you can order from them and what we have left in stock for you to purchase from the office. Please look out for the leaflets that we are sending out with this newsletter.

Design a Card Competition

We would like to have cards printed for use as thank you cards etc. and therefore have decided to hold a competition to design a card. Entries should be on A4 paper with name and class on separate piece of paper attached to entry. Please send all entries to the school office by Friday 28th May. The prize will be having your design printed. Thank you.

Ground Force Team

We are looking for volunteers to form a team to help clean and maintain the school pond, wildlife area etc. The first 'Ground Force' day will be by this Friday after school. Please come along with wheel barrows and spades if you are able to help. Refreshments will be provided.

National Family Week

National family Week begins on 31st May 2010. Look out for special events in and around the city, at locations such as the Westfield, The Quad, parks, libraries & Children's Centres.
